

Jim Hoekema

Sample "medium fidelity" wireframe

Wireframe shows a sketch of screen to be used in remote psychological interviews (using video conferencing), in which the examiner records assessment data using a tablet or touch screen, and the system captures the handwritten input.

Rater: R. Vreeland Subject: "Kim" Instrument: SCI-PANSS Instrument Elapsed: 0:16:00
ID: 456738484 Site: Conn. General Hosp, Rm 1107 Total Elapsed: 0:16:00

Scheduled Assessments

- > SCI-PANSS
 - Anxiety
 - Delusions & Unusual Thoughts
 - Suspiciousness, Persecution...
 - Hallucinatory Behavior
- > QOL
- > RISK

Assessment Sample 4

When rater clicks question Done button or selects another question, with handwritten input field remains at full scale (or could be collapsed).

Data on "Hallucinatory Behavior" (P3) and associated delusions

65. Sometimes people tell me that they can hear noises or voices inside their head that others can't hear. What about you?
 No Yes

66. Do you sometimes receive personal communications from the radio or TV?
 No Yes

67. From God or the Devil?
 No Yes

68. What do you hear?
 Noises Only Voices

They laugh, sing songs, there's a lot of them - they try to get me to do things Done

69. Are these as clear and loud as my voice?
 No Yes

70. Does this happen at a particular time of day or all the time?
 Particular time All the time

Session Comments View | Add

Patient seems agitated. Done

Messages

Section B is incomplete.
65 Yes: Skip to Question 68.